

Comment about BLUMENBERG by Harry Gower

Blumenberg always used the "friendly approach." When he was out at White Basin, would come over to P.C.B.'s camp and offer them fresh figs, etc. Tell them at any time to make use of his suite at the Hollenbeck Hotel when they were in Los Angeles. ✓

"It's for the use of all Borax people."

Next day he'd be over on their land, digging out their ore.

COMMENTS BY WW CAHILL

Cahill says Blumenberg asked P.C.B. to put him on their payroll to keep him out of the Borax business.

Blumenberg acted as witness for Equalization Board of San Bernardino County to try and get taxes raised for P.C.B. at Borate and at Searles Lake. Cahill, in spite of it, succeeded in getting the Company's taxes lowered. When Board offered to have Blumenberg put under oath, Cahill remarked mildly that it would do no good. "Anyone who knows Mr. Blumenberg, knows that, whether under oath, or not under oath, you can't believe a word he says." Blumenberg appeared highly amused at this.
